Beginning the 2011 to 2012 DTC Guild year is an exciting time. First to reflect ~ it's humbling to see the past presidents... the dedicated "fan energy" that cumulatively has created this amazing organization... How challenging to understand all the "big shoes and silver slippers" to try to walk behind! Most of all ~ it's such an honor to be a part of this amazing community theater support group!

So... The theme we'd like to propose this year is:

"DTC GUILD ~ GET IN THE SCENE!"

I had been a kid that moved so much, I didn't have a lot of friends. Theater really represented camaraderie. Francis Ford Coppola

GET INVOLVED, first and foremost, in the "camaraderie" here ~ it is life changing. To do that ~ just "show up"! This group makes EVERYONE feel like they are right at home!

I can still remember my first DTC Guild meeting and being extended SO many warm, personal welcomes... follow up introductions... and multiple opportunities to serve ... One of the first "gigs" for me was Tech Dinners, and I loved the casual setting for meeting the cast and crew. This remains one of my favorite activities. Sherry Peel

Second, CONTRIBUTE to a "volunteer area" of interest. This enhances the opportunity for "camaraderie". Working together on projects enables getting to know other fans of the theater and of the DTC.

Third, ATTEND the theater enrichment programs offered by the Guild ~ General Meetings, Salon Events, Readings, etc. This can make the theater experience come alive!

We hope you can see that the DTC Guild is a great community theater audience that has wonderful camaraderie and tons o' fun!! In closing ~ consider this:

If you really want to help the American (Dallas) theater, don't be an actress, dahling. Be an audience. Tallulah Bankhead

Guild Co-Presidents, Sherry Peel and Vicki Newsom

Lunch with Kevin Moriarity:

Artistic Director, Kevin Moriarty will be the Keynote Speaker at this one of a kind event benefitting the Dallas Theater Center. Kevin will share his insights of the Theater and Democracy from Ancient Greece and to Modern Dallas. Kevin is an enthusiastic and captivating speaker and is sure to make this an event to remember. Enjoy a delicious meal in the beautiful Wyly Theater Patron Lounge - Tuesday, October 4th at 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Tickets can be purchased at dtcguild.org for $50 per person. This is sure to be a sellout event.

Salon Series: To Kill A Mockingbird

The Salon Series is inspired by the fashionable gatherings of the 17th century as well as post-war Paris. At these gatherings, intellectuals, artist and social luminaries would gather to discuss topics of culture, politics and art. In this tradition, the Dallas Theater Center Guild invites you to join our Second Salon Series on the evening of November 7th at the home of Donna Wilhelm. We will be discussing the Dallas Theater Center's production of To Kill A Mockingbird. Save the date ~ further event details will be available soon.

Hey, Boo

The Guild is happy to sponsor a film screening of "Hey, Boo: Harper Lee & To Kill A Mockingbird" on October 24, 2011 at the Magnolia Theater in Uptown. The documentary will serve as a supplement to the DTC live production of "To Kill A Mockingbird" and hopefully inspire dialog around the central themes of this poignant story. The film begins at 7:00 P.M. and immediately following there will be a panel discussion. The cost is $10.00.

Holiday Merrymaking

The Guild's Holiday Merrymaking Party will be December 5th, 7 P.M., at Madeline and Michael Freberg's home—an event not to be missed!!

Subscription Bar:

The Guild is providing volunteers for the Theater to serve as greeters at the Wyly. We have a subscription table with brochures for the Theater season and information about the Guild and Guild membership forms. Please help us fulfil our mission to help the Dallas Theater Center by coing an hour early, greeting or giving out information. You get a reserved seat for the performance. We need 4 volunteers for each show. To get on the schedule and secure a time and date, contact Rocky Ford at 214.32738796, or rrford@hotmail.com
